CHESTER, 10*th September*. 1739.

MR. FRANKLIN,

AS the Proprietary Quit-Rents are now advertis'd to be paid to the Receiver-General in purſuance (as appears by the Advertiſements) of an Agreement entered into by the preſent Aſſembly with the PROPRIETARIES, you are deſired to publiſh the late Act in your Paper, that other Tenants as well as my ſelf may know how we are to behave with Regard to our Payments. I am informed that by the Tenor of the late Act there may very ill Conſequences attend ſuch as neglect to pay; if ſo, they ought to be made publick, that we may be prepared to avoid them by the diſcharge of our Arrears to the Receiver-General when he comes to collect them.

I am, SIR,

Your conſtant Reader,

A. B.

An ACT for the more effectual preſerving the Credit of our Paper-Money, and recovering the Proprietary Quit-Rents.

WHEREAS it has been found by Experience, That Bills of Credit emitted upon Land-Security as a Medium in Commerce, have been of great Service for carrying on the Trade and other Improvements in this Province, and Money and Gold being now become a Commodity, and generally remitted to Great Britain, in return for the Manufactures of that Kingdom imported hither;

And it being objected by the Proprietors of the Province of Pennſylvania, that the Quit-Rents reſerved to them and payable in Sterling Money, are now greatly in Arrear, and that it would be a very great Diſappointment to them to receive the ſame otherwiſe than in Silver Money;

And whereas it would be a Hardſhip upon the Freeholders of this Province, to purchaſe Silver to pay their Quit-Rents, and the ſame might alſo greatly affect the Credit or Value of our Paper-Money, and render it of leſs general Uſe: To remove which Difficulties, and for the Preſervation of the Credit of our Paper-Money, our Proprietors having condeſcended to accept of the Bills of Credit of this Province at the Rate the ſame are made Current by Law in all Payments, for the Quit-Rents, due or to become due to them, on Grants of Land and Lots made before the Year One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Thirty-two; during the Continuance of this Act; the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennſylvania, in General Aſſembly met, in Conſideration of the Premiſſes, have agreed to pay to them our ſaid Proprietors the Sum of Twelve Hundred Pounds in Bills of Credit of this Province, at the Days and Times herein after mentioned, as alſo the Sum of One Hundred and Thirty Pounds annually, during the Re-emiſſion of the Bills of Credit, to be made current by an Act of the General Aſſembly of this Province, paſt this Seſſion of Aſſemby, entitled An ACT for Re-printing, Exchanging and Re-emitting all the Bills of Credit of this Province, and for ſtriking the further Sum of 11,110 l. 5 s to be emitted upon Loan.

Therefore be it enacted by GEORGE THOMAS, Eſq; with the King's Approbation, Lieutenant Governor under the Honourable John Penn, Thomas Penn, and Richard Penn, Eſqrs; true and abſolute Proprietors of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Province in General Aſſembly met, and by the Authority of the ſame; That there ſhall be paid to our Honourable Proprietors, or their Order, by the Truſtees of the General Loan-Office of this Province, for the time being, out of the Intereſt Money made payable to them by Virtue of the Act of Aſſembly aforeſaid, the Sum of Seven Hundred and Thirty Pounds in Bills of Credit, on the Twentieth Day of October, which will be in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty, and alſo the further Sum of Seven Hundred and Thirty Pounds like Money, on the Twentieth Day of October, which will be in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-one, and likewiſe the Sum of One Hundred and Thirty Pounds every Year after the ſaid Twentieth Day of October, in the Year One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-one, during the Re-emiſſion of the Bills of Credit aforeſaid, by the Act aforeſaid: Which Payments ſo made, and Receipts for the ſame from the Proprietors, or their Order or Aſſigns, being produced, ſhall be deemed, taken and adjudged ſufficient Vouchers to diſcharge them the ſaid Truſtees, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, of and from ſo much of the Intereſt-Money payable into their Hands, by Virtue of the Act of Aſſembly aforeſaid.

AND WHEREAS the ſuffering the Quit-Rents to lye ſo long in Arrear, has proved not only a real Loſs to our Proprietors, but at this Time has brought a very great Charge upon the Province, which we judge may in a great Meaſure be owing to the tedious and expenſive Way provided for the Recovery of the ſaid Rents. For Remedying thereof, Be it ENACTED by the Authority aforeſaid, That in Caſe any Perſon or Perſons holding holding or claiming any Lands or Lots within this Province, ſhall neglect to appear upon publick Notice given as in and by one Act of General Aſſembly of this Province, made in the Fourth Year of the late Queen Anne, entituled, An ACT for the more eaſy and effectual Collecting the Proprietaries Quit-Rents, is directed and provided, or within the Space of Ten Days after the Time limited by the aforeſaid Act of Aſſembly, and pay the Quit-Rents that by him, her or them ſhall be then due to the Proprietors of Pennſylvania, in Bills of Credit of this Province as then Current, upon Grants made before the Year 1732, and upon all Grants made afterwards, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Grants; It ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Receiver-General or ſuch Perſon as he ſhall appoint for that Purpoſe, to diſtrain the Goods and Chattels of the Owner or Poſſeſſor of the ſaid Lands, for all ſuch Rents as ſhall then be in Arrear, or ought to have been paid as aforeſaid, and the Diſtreſs ſo taken to carry lead or drive away, and if ſuch Goods or Chattels ſhall not be replevied within the Space of 5 Days next after ſuch Diſtreſs, made, then to cauſe the ſaid Goods and Chattels to be appraiſed and ſold in ſuch Manner, and the Money ariſing by ſuch Sales to be diſtributed, as by an Act made in the 2d Year of the late King William and Queen Mary, entituled, An ACT for enabling the Sale of Goods diſtrained for Rent, in Caſe the Rent be not paid in reaſonable Time, is in that Behalf directed and appointed.

And if upon ſuch Suit the Perſon replevying ſhall diſcontinue his Suit, become Not-ſuit, or a Verdict paſs againſt him in the ſaid Cauſe, the Goods diſtrained ſhall be reſtored by the Perſon who replevied the ſame, or he ſhall pay the Rent in Arrear with Coſts of Suit, and ſuch Damages only as ſhall be awarded by the Court.

And be it further enacted, That where no ſufficent Diſtreſs can be found, or where the Owners of Lands are not reſident within this Province, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Proprietors, to cauſe a Summons to iſſue in the uſual Manner as directed in the Caſe of Freeholders, againſt the Owner or Poſſeſſor of ſuch Lands, and a Copy of the ſaid Summons to be delivered by the Sheriff or his Deputy to ſuch Owner or Poſſeſſor of the ſaid Lands, or to ſome of his or her Family, 10 Days before the Court to which ſuch Summons is returnable, or to leave a Copy of the Summons upon the Land, in Caſe there be no Perſon in Poſſeſſion of the ſame, or that the Owner be a Non-Reſident, at leaſt 10 Days before the Day of the Return of the Summons, in the Preſence of One Witneſs at leaſt; and in Caſe of the Non-appearance of the Party by himſelf or lawful Attorney, then Judgment to be entered againſt the Defendant for the Rent due with Coſts of Suit: And the better to avoid the Expence and Delay often occaſion'd by long and tedious ſpecial Pleadings, it ſhall and may be lawful and ſufficient for the ſaid Proprietors, where any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or Diſtreſs made for Quit-Rents due to them, to declare generally as Proprietors of Pennſylvania, upon an inſimul computaſſent in Debt, or otherwiſe, to avow as the Caſe may require for ſo much Quit-Rent due to them, out of the Lands or Lots, &c. for ſo many Years in Arrear, to which the Defendants may appear, and plead that he, or thoſe under whom he claims, hath or have paid the whole or ſome Part of the Rents demanded, as the Cauſe may be, or that he made a lawful Tender of all the Monies due for Rent in Arrear, and is ſtill ready and offers to pay the ſame; and if Verdict or Judgment be given for ſuch Defendant, he ſhall thereupon be diſcharged without Payment of Coſts

Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall be deemed to repeal or diſannul the aforeſaid Act of General Aſſembly for the more eaſy and effectual Collecting of the Proprietaries Quit-Rents, except ſuch Part thereof as is hereby altered or other Proviſion made by this Act; and that this Act continue until the 15th Day of October in the Year 1749, and no longer.

" IT is (therein) enacted, That there ſhall be always " in this Province a Receiver-General appointed by " the Proprietary his Heirs and Aſſigns, or by thoſe " that repreſent the Proprietor, his Heirs and Aſſigns " in this Province, in matters of Property, who ſhall " hold an Office, which ſhall be called the Receiver-" General's Office for Pennſylvania, and either by himſelf or ſufficient Deputies, ſhall ſit on ſome certain " Day or Days in the firſt Month called March yearly " at ſuch Place or Places in the reſpective Counties as " is by the Proprietors Patents appointed, of which time " and place ten Days Notice ſhall be by the reſpective " Receiver given and publiſhed, by fixing Notes or Advertiſements in Writing upon the Door of every publick Meeting-Houſe, for Religious Worſhip in each " County, and then and there receive all Quit-Rents " due for ſuch Lands in each County, from all and every the Freeholders and others, that poſſeſs and " claim the ſame, who ſhall purſuant to their Tenures " be hereby obliged at ſuch Time and Place to appear " in Perſon, or by their Friends and pay their Arrears " of Rent.

" And in Caſe any Perſon who ſo holds and claims any " Lands or Lots in this Province, ſhall neglect to appear " as aforeſaid, and pay their Quit-Rents (Notice being " given as aforeſaid) the Receiver or reſpective Collector may levy the ſame by Diſtreſs, according as the " Law of England impowers and directs to diſtrain for " Rents: And if no Diſtreſs can be found, the Proprietary, his Heirs or Aſſigns may ſue for the Rent or " Arrearages thereof, in an Action of Debt, at the reſpective County-Courts, and ſhall recover the ſame " as any other Debt may be recovered by the Laws of " this Government.

" But where any Perſon holding Lands of the Proprietary, is not by Patent, Deed or Contract obliged " to pay his Rent at any certain Place, and after ſuch " Notice of Time and Place given by the Receiver or " Collector as aforeſaid, refuſes to pay the ſame accordingly, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Receiver or Collector to diſtrain for the Rent due before ſuch Demand, " or for want of Diſtreſs, the ſame ſhall be ſued for as aforeſaid.

" And whereas divers Perſons, who are not reſident " in this Province, have procured their Lands to be located, where the ſame, by the Settlement of the " neighbouring Inhabitants are greatly improved in Value, and yet have not paid Quit-Rents nor publick " Charges, for want of ſome Perſon in the Place to anſwer for them: Be it therefore enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the 25th of the " Month called March, which ſhall be in the Year " 1708, where any Tracts of Lands or Lots ſhall be in " Arrears for Quit-Rents, yearly ariſing thereupon, or " for the Provincial or County-Rates aſſeſſed or to be " aſſeſſed or made payable for the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the Clerk of the County where ſuch Land lies, " in the Name of the Proprietor, to ſue ſuch Non-Reſident, in the reſpective County-Court, as well for the " Arrears of Quit-Rent as Taxes unpaid, for the Space of " three Years or more, next before ſuch Suit, and if " the Defendant doth not by himſelf or any other appear to defend ſuch Suit, and pay the ſaid Arrears of " Quit-Rents and Taxes, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Defendant, and Execution ſhall be awarded, to be levied on ſo much of the ſaid Lands as ſhall " ſatisfy the Judgment, in the ſame manner as other

" Lands

" Lands by the Laws of this Province are to be taken " and ſold upon Execution, for the Payment of Debts; " and ſo much of the Money raiſed by ſuch Sale as " ſhall be due for Quit-Rents, ſhall be by the Sheriff " paid to the Proprietor or his Receiver; and what " ſhall be due for Taxes ſhall be paid to the Provincial " or County-Treaſurer reſpectively.

" And be it further enacted, by the Authority afore- " ſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices " of each County of this Province, to grant Writs of " Replevin, in all Caſes whatſoever, where Replevins " may be granted by the Laws of England taking Secu- " rity, as the ſaid Law directs, and make them return- " able to the next reſpective Courts of Common-Pleas " in the proper County, there to be determined accord- " ing to Law.

N. B. By the late Act for Re-printing, Exchanging and Re-emitting all the Bills of Credit of this Province, &c. the Truſtees of the Loan-Office are enjoined to take Care that there be no Quit-Rent in Arrear on ſuch Lands, &c. as they receive in Mortgage.

LONDON, June 1.

They write from Paris, that the Earl of Waldgrave, upon the Receipt of a Courier from his Court, repair'd to Verſailles, where he declar'd to M. Amelot, that his Britannick Majeſty having been inform'd of the Equipment of a Squadron at Breſt, at a Time when France was in perfect Peace, had charg'd him to demand what that Squadron was deſign'd for, and whether the Report was true of its being intended for the Baltick. M. Amelot anſwer'd him, that unleſs the King alter'd his Opinion, that was its Deſtination; but that his Majeſty had no other Deſign in ſending it there, than to exerciſe that Part of his Navy. The Earl of Waldgrave having demanded a more poſitive Explication; M. Amelot ſaid, he really could not give any other: But the Cardinal, it's aſſur'd, told a foreign Miniſter, that Sweden had demanded the King to ſend a Squadron into the Baltick, becauſe that the Alliance between Ruſſia and Great-Britain, and that of this laſt with Denmark, made it neceſſary for that Nation to put itſelf upon its Guard, and to prepare for all Events; and that his Majeſty was glad to take this Opportunity of exerciſing a Part of his Marine in thoſe Seas; tho' ſo far from thereby ſeeking to ſtir up Quarrels in the North, that it was his ſincere Intention to prevent them to the Utmoſt of his Power.

June 9. We hear that Capt. Norris, late Commander of the Gibraltar Man of War, lately arriv'd at Portſmouth, from Liſbon, is appointed Capt. of the Adventure, a 40 Gun Ship, lately put into Commiſſion, and order'd to ſail for Newfoundland to be ſtation'd there.

BOSTON, September 3.

By a Letter from Newfoundland, dated at St. John's the 31ſt of July, 1739. and directed to a Merchant of Note in this Town, we have the following Account, viz.

" Capt. Blewet is this Morning arriv'd from Liſbon, in 25 Days, who ſays, the Day before he left that Place, there was an Expreſs by a Pacquet in Eight Days from London; and that all the Men of War were in Commiſſion, and that there was an Embargo on all Ships in England for 6 Weeks, and that a War was expected to break out every Day."

Yeſterday a Veſſel arrived here from Holland, by whom we hear, that it was hourly expected the French would join the Spaniards againſt Great-Britain, and that the States of Holland were alſo making military Preparations. The Mate of the ſaid Veſſel further adds, that he read in one of the News-Papers, that the Britiſh Men of War had taken a Spaniſh Galleon.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 10.

Paragraph of a private Letter from Madeira, dated June 30. N. S.

We do ourſelves the Pleaſure to acquaint you, that we have Advices by two Veſſels from Spain, who met with Admiral Haddock off of Cadiz, and this Day by a Veſſel from Liſbon in 14 Days, that the War with Spain was begun; the latter brings us Advice, that the Gibraltar, of 20 Guns, was attack'd by two Spaniſh Men of War of 50 and 60 Guns, defended herſelf as long as ſhe could, and then blew up, whether the Capt. or any of the People eſcap'd we cannot ſay. The former adviſes us that Admiral Haddock, was cruiſing off of Cadiz for the Galleons, and to prevent a Squadron of 12 Sail in the Groyne, from joining with 19 Sail in Cadiz, and that he expected ſcon Admiral Norris, Lord Forbes, and Admiral Cavendiſh to join him. We have no certainty yet, that either France, Holland, or Portugal have declared themſelves.
